

Rights and duties

Victims of sexual violence

Law 360 of 1997 of Congress of Colombia.

The mission and philosophy of El Rosario Clinic ensures the respect of people's dignity and the protection of the right to access health, in accordance with the statement above, the clinic embraces the law 360 of 1997 concerning sexual violence, which establishes that a victim of crimes against sexual freedom and human dignity have the following rights and duties.

You have a right to:

Be treated with dignity, privacy and respect during any interview or portrayal concerning medical, legal or social assistance purposes.

01

Be informed about the legal procedures concerning the punishable offense.

02

Be informed about the services available to better tend to your necessities caused by the crime.

03

Access services of counseling and orientation.

04

A comprehensive service that includes necessary exams, treatments and evaluations.

05

Your duties are:

Cooperate with all the information needed for your treatment.

Access legal intervention when deemed appropriate.

Answer to your doubts regarding the use of these services.

Make use of these services when deemed necessary.

Follow the treatment and orientations given by the personal assist you.

Amor que acompaña y servicio que alivia

Single number: 444 1555 - clinicaelrosario@clinicaelrosario.com

 Clínica El Rosario •  @cermedellín • www.clinicaelrosario.com • Medellín, Colombia